U. S. Army Corps of Engineers

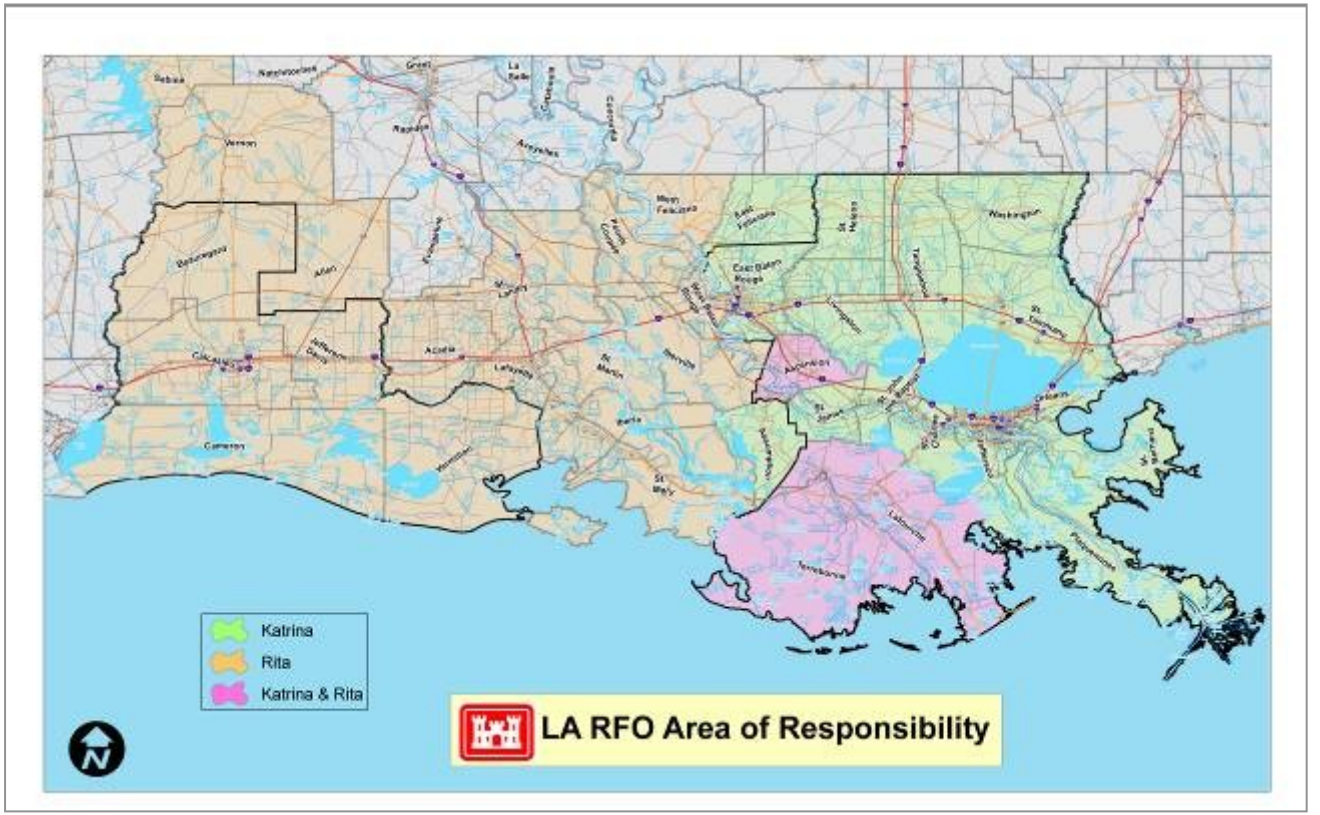
Louisiana Recovery Field Office

Mission Overview

The Face of the Corps!

Area of Responsibility

Missions in 40 Parishes



LA RFO Mission

As of 1 Mar 07

The U.S. Army Corps of Engineers Louisiana Recovery Field Office (LA RFO) provides FEMA Emergency Support

Function # 3 (ESF3) mission recovery support to include technical assistance, debris removal, including demolition and private property debris removal, temporary housing support, and others as assigned to the affected citizens of Louisiana in order to facilitate recovery from Hurricanes KATRINA and RITA

2006 LA-RFO

31 Major Contracts - $2.3 Billion

Setting the stage for full recovery

Debris Removal

Temporary Roofing

Critical Public Facilities

Quality Assurance

Water & Ice Mission

Sustaining Life for Victims and the Response

COMPLETE

National Response Plan

- Advance contracts with suppliers.
- Pre-positioned in staging areas.
- Final distribution through local governments

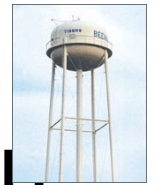
2,178 truckloads water delivered

One truckload is ~18,000 liters (40 l Total)



A rural water tank holds about 1 M

1,533 truckloads ice deliver

One truckload is ~40,000 lbs (61 M Total)

One truckload = 40 filled ice machines

Mission = 62,000 ice machines

The Face of the Corps!

Power Mission

Sustaining Life, Powering the Response

Assessments: 928

Generators Installed: 288 generators

Katrina: 140

Rita: 148

COMPLETE

US Army
Corps of Engineers
Louisiana Recovery Field Office

The Face of the Corps!

As of: 29 Apr 07

Critical Public Facilities

Restoring Community Normalcy and Key Operations

Classrooms: 216

Other Critical Facilities: 94

Total: 310

Angie Junior HS
Angie, LA

SUNO Campus, NOLA

COMPLETE

Temporary Roofing

Stabilizing families and community economic systems

Total: 81,242

Katrina: 62,434

Rita: 18,808

COMPLETE

9 square miles of roofs repaired = Bogalusa, La, the City of New Orleans covered one piece at a time

The Face of the Corps!

US Army
Corps of Engineers
Louisiana Recovery Field Office

As of: 29 Apr 07

Temporary Housing

Stabilizing families and community economic systems

Site Review and Assessments
1,217 potential sites

Detailed Assessments
144 approved sites

QA Support Construction Completed
109 sites

All Construction Complete; Inspection Continues

2007 LA-RFO Contracts

10 Demolition Contracts - $150 million

Setting the stage for full recovery

Using Small Business

45% of RFO contractor subcontracted dollars have gone to Louisiana firms

LA-RFO has awarded 395 contracts to large and small Louisiana businesses, 286 of those going to small business

Debris Removal

Total Mission Estimate: 27.4 million cubic yards

New Orleans
Mission: 12.6 MCY
To Date: 12.5 MCY
Est. Completion: 8/07

As of 19 Feb 2007	Removed	% Complete
Katrina	20.6 MCY	99%
Rita	6.6 MCY	100%
Total	27.4 MCY

ROW Trees: 8,300 Tires: 259,000

Debris would fill 6-7 Superdomes or
7-8 Empire State Buildings

Private Property Debris Removal Sites

New Orleans Estimate
26,126

Collected To Date
25,035

Estimated Completion
8/07

Estimated Sites

Katrina Orleans Parish
26,126

Other Parishes
44,363

Rita 2, 834

Total 73,323

Sites Completed

Katrina Orleans Parish
25,035

Other Parishes
13,165

Rita
2,834

Total 41,034

The Face of the Corps!

Demolition

Estimated Demolition Mission

Katrina Orleans Parish 15,000

Other Parishes 1,786

Rita 1,018

Total 17,804

Demolitions Completed

Katrina Orleans Parish 3,124

Other Parishes

1,670

Rita

1,017

Total 5,811

The Face of the Corps!

Orleans Area Debris Management Areas

- Recovery 1
  - Vegetative Debris
- Chef Menteur (Enhanced Type III)
  - C&D (Construction/Demolition) April 13 to August 15, 2006
- River Birch (Type I and II)
  - Regulated Asbestos-Containing Material (RACM)
- Highway 90 (Type III)
  - C&D
- Gentilly (Type III)
  - C&D and Non-RACM, White Goods Processing

New Orleans Area Debris Management Areas

- Facilities Used to Date (all parish
  - Katrina: 48
  - Rita: 21
- Active Facilities: 9

LA RFO

Closing Remarks

Meet the Face of the Corps!